REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The drawings filed on 29 November 2004 (11/29/2004) are acknowledged. These drawings are accepted by the examiner.
2. The amendment filed 10 January 2006 (01/10/2006) is acknowledged and made of record. Claims 35-36 have been canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-34 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

RE claim 1, the prior art of record, and in particular Shrinkle (USPN 5,585,974), fails to teach or suggest a method comprising the steps of: (a) selecting a target error rate for recording data during the write process, for one or more of the data storage devices; and (b) for each data storage device, determining a dither value for each head in the data storage device, wherein for each head, using the corresponding dither value for the write process essentially provides said selected target error for all the heads.

RE claims 15 and 23, the prior art of record, and in particular Shrinkle (USPN 5,585,974), fails to teach or suggest a method and associated apparatus comprising the steps of (a) selecting a target error rate for recording data during the write process, for one or more of the data storage devices; and (b) for each data storage device, determining the amount by which to artificially degrade the read signal during the write process for each head in the data storage device to essentially provide said selected target error rate for all the heads.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
